Attempted Armed Robbery in Greenacres Neighborhood

On Thursday, January 12th at approximately 7:27 p.m. a resident of the Greenacres section of Scarsdale who walked home from the Hartsdale train station was confronted by a male in the driveway of her residence. The suspect was dressed in black, wearing a mask and displayed a handgun. The suspect grabbed the resident by the arm and demanded property from her. The victim yelled out and ran away, and the suspect fled the area. The victim was not injured and no property was taken. The Scarsdale Police arrived quickly and conducted an extensive search of the area. The Scarsdale Police were assisted by the Westchester County Police, including canine and aviation units. At this time, a suspect has not been located, and the police are encouraging anyone with information regarding the incident to contact Scarsdale Police at 914-722-1200.

The Scarsdale Police Department's Investigations Section is working with Yonkers Police Detectives regarding an incident that occurred in their jurisdiction later the same night to determine if the Yonkers and Scarsdale incidents are related. Scarsdale Police Department Detectives are continuing to investigate the incident and the Department will provide updates as the investigation develops.
