There is a Primary Election for the following parties in the Town of Scarsdale for the September 13, 2018 Primary Election:

Democratic Party – Countywide

Reform Party – Countywide, Open Ballot for Attorney General

The Reform Party is having an “Open Primary” which allows all Non-Affiliated voters to vote in their Primary. This means that there will be Non-Affiliated voters’ names in those poll books. They are only allowed to vote in the Reform Party, this does not apply to any of the other parties.

To look up a polling location by residence, or to find additional information on the Primary Election and voting, residents may visit the Westchester County Board of Election website at <https://tinyurl.com/ScarsdalePollingPlaces> or call (914) 995-5700. Residents may also call the Scarsdale Town Clerk’s office at (914) 722-1175 for further details.
