Subject: Suspicious Incident near Fox Meadow School Determined to be Unfounded

Regarding the Press Release that was issued this morning, after further investigation and interviews, it was determined that the male who spoke to the child was actually a neighbor who was known to the family. There was no suspicious activity. The initial information was disseminated to the community out of an abundance of caution, but we want to stress that after thoroughly investigating the incident, it is unfounded. We apologize for any inconvenience.

Information can be reported the Scarsdale Police anonymously at:
